The purpose of The National Society of Pershing Rifles is to foster a spirit of friendship and cooperation among men in the Military Department and to maintain a highly efficient drill company. Wishing to increase the morale of the ROTC unit at the University of Nebraska in 1891, Lieutenant John J. Pershing formed a picked company of men known as Company "A."

After winning the maiden drill competition at Omaha in 1892, Company "A" in 1893 became a fraternal organization and changed its name to PERSHING RIFLES.

From 1900-1911, Pershing Rifles reached the height of its existence prior to World War I and membership was a great military honor. Until 1911 its influence in the Military Department continued, but after that date the organization suddenly lost prestige and declined deplorably. In 1917 conditions became so bad that the organization was disbanded and its records burned.

In 1920 the Pershing Rifles was again formed. But out of the ashes of organization which had died of its own weight in 1917, there sprang a corps with new life and activity. In fact, its growth in honor and prestige was so remarkable that special drill companies all over the country began to seek admittance into the Society.

The present National Honorary Society of Pershing Rifles owes its existence to Ohio State University. In the spring of 1924, "The President's Guard" applied for affiliation with the Pershing Rifles but the Nebraska organization refused. Then the Ohio State group, seeing the need for a national organization for basic men, threatened to nationalize "The President's Guard" and leave Nebraska out if the two organizations could not work together. Finally, Nebraska approved the formal application of Ohio State on 13 May, 1925.

Thus was inaugurated a new policy in the Pershing Rifles which now includes the National Headquarters at the University of Nebraska, 12 Regiments, 152 Companies, and over 8,000 members all over the United States and Puerto Rico.

This is the second year for Centenary to have a Pep Squad. It was organized on October 14, 1958, by Mrs. R. M. Nichols, its sponsor, and Miss Mary Frances Estes, and is composed of fifty girls. They have been very active this year, having attended all the home games in a body.

The Organization has membership limited to Freshman and Sophomore girls this year, but will increase its ranks to include upperclassmen as it grows older. Mrs. Nichols, Student Activities Counselor, has been very active in promoting this fine organization in every way possible to make it into something Centenary and the Centenary Gents can be proud of for years to come.

The Student Senate of Centenary College is composed of 13 members and 3 faculty advisors. The five major officers are elected by the entire student body. A boy and girl are elected by the independent students to represent them. The sororities and fraternities elect a member through their joint organizations. The presidents of each class becomes a member of the Senate immediately after their election.

The Senate has the power to govern, regulate, and otherwise control all student affairs and social functions as defined in the Senate Rules and subject to the general college regulations and actions by the Committee on Student Affairs. Among the activities that the Senate has sponsored have been: Howdy Dance, Gent's Day, Homecoming, Student Fair, and Founder's Day.

SENATE

SEATED: Mary Lou Low, Independent Representative; Connie Gathright, Secretary; Dr. Carlton, Faculty Advisor; Barbara Hyde, Coed Vice President; Brenda Bailey, Panhellenic Representative. STANDING: Dr. Voran, Faculty Advisor; Paul McMahan, Sophomore President; Bud Willis, Interfraternity Representative; Ken Hayes, Treasurer; Dub Fletcher, President; Harold Price, Independent Representative; Sonny Elder, Freshman President; Fred Willis, Senior President; Jim Daigle, Junior President; Buddy Dailey, Vice President; Dean Allen, Sponsor.

The Maroon Jackets have served as Centenary's official hostesses for twenty-eight years and are made up of girls who are dedicated to Centenary and are outstanding in scholarship, leadership and character. A lovely tradition on the college campus, these girls represent Centenary at all college functions. For membership this organization requires a 3.0 average and two semesters of residence at Centenary previous to the semester in which new members are chosen.

HONOR COURT

Centenary's Honor Court is a board of five members and two alternates who hold office from the time of their election to the date of their graduation, unless elected to a Student Senate office. Members of the Honor Court are nominated by the students; the field is narrowed down by the faculty, and the final selection is made by the retiring court.

The function of the Honor Court is to try persons accused of violating the honor code. All trials are held in secret and no person is convicted unless proven guilty by unquestionable evidence.

KISS ME KATE

Elegantly costumed ladies and gentlemen of the chorus take a bow at conclusion of "Street Scene."

As delighted citizens of old Padua look on, Roger Johns (Petruchio) demonstrates "how to tame a shrew."

Since its opening night in 1957, the nationally famous Marjorie Lyons Playhouse has become a mecca of cultural activity for the entire Ark-La-Tex area, not only in the field of theatre, but also opera, ballet, art and concerts. Thanks to Director Joe Gifford it has successfully combined the talents of Centenary students with that of people from Houston to New York City, and has proved not only a good advertisement for the college but the City of Shreveport as well.

In keeping with the tradition of production of outstanding musical comedy, the Playhouse opened its 1959-60 season with the lilting rhythms and lyrics of Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate." This delightful version of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," which in reality becomes a show within a show featured Roger Johns and Helene Arthur Burgess in the leads. Stand-outs in the cast were John O. Williams and Al Pagnato as the gangsters. Choreography was by Larry Stevens of New York. Other Centenary students featured in the cast were: Jack Mulkey, Jim Daigle, Sammy Kilman, Bob Murray, Ray Chabeau, Barry Hope, Tommy Hickcox, Virginia Bobbitt, Ruth Velotta, Ginger Darnell and Bobette Oken. Scenic design was by Keith Simmons.

KISMET

Shreveport audiences received a rare treat when the curtain rose on the Playhouse production of the musical Arabian Night spectacular "Kismet" in August. Complete with towered mosques, whirling dervishes, lavish scenery and costumes, beautiful slave girls and a magical score borrowed from Alexander Borodin, "Kismet" contained all the elements needed to become one of the all-time hits in Playhouse history.

Featuring Houston's Paul Cambeilh, as the post Hajj, Helene Burgess as Lalume, Linda Fields as Marsinah and Haigler Henry as the wicked Wazir, fame of the show soon spread. Under the skillful direction of world-famous expert on oriental dance, Mara, the show-stopping, high-leaping Ababu troupe of Mary Shepherd, Melanie McCain, and Stafford Lyons, Jack Mulkey and Ray Chabeau recreated their role in Palm Beach, Florida and will probably appear in the Fort Worth production.

Other Centenary students appearing were: Robert Sorensen, David James, John O. Williams, Ginger Darnell, Jack Baker, Jerry Mitchell and Keith Simmons. Orchestra was under the direction of Eddy Kozak.

FRESHMAN FOLLIES

March 11 and 12, the Playhouse stage resounded with the music and dancing of "Annie Get Your Gun" and "Oklahoma," as the Freshman Class presented the Freshman Follies of 1960. Proving that all the talent of Centenary is not limited to the drama department, the "Follies" were a big success. The leads in Annie were: Ez Fatter as Frank Butler, Al Pius as Sittin' Bull, Bobby Ross as Wilson and Jerry La Bruey as Charlie Davenport. The leads for Oklahoma were: Betsy Gould as Laurey, Barry Hope as Curley, Jackie Rosett as Aunt Ella, Ryan Horton as Will Parker, Nancy Evans as Ado Annie and Rick Biggs as Jud.

THE GIRLS IN 509

Lalia Hurst White (left) as Aunt Hettie and Jeni Lou Ince as Mimsy.

When the Republican party lost the election in 1932, Aunt Hettie as its campaign manager took her young niece Mimsy and sought the seclusion of a lower East Side apartment, where they completely shut themselves off from the outside world. It was obvious to them that with the "Other Party" in office the United States was absolutely finished.

What happens when the "girls" find out that a Republican is back in office makes one of the funniest, if not one of the most unusual comedies to be seen on any stage in recent years. The Playhouse was fortunate to have the talents of two of Shreveport's finest actresses Lalia Hurst White and Jeni Lou Ince, as well as the original Broadway set which featured a highly unusual Zebra trap designed to snare unwanted visitors and hoist them up to the chandelier.

Centenary students in this highly successful play were: Tommy Hickcox, Jerry Fanelli, James Daigle and Bob Murray. Stage managers were Jim Daigle and Sammy Kilman.

Hettie and Mimsy listen warily as politicians, welfare workers and reporters try to get into their apartment which is wall-papered with General Motor Stocks.

Cool It.

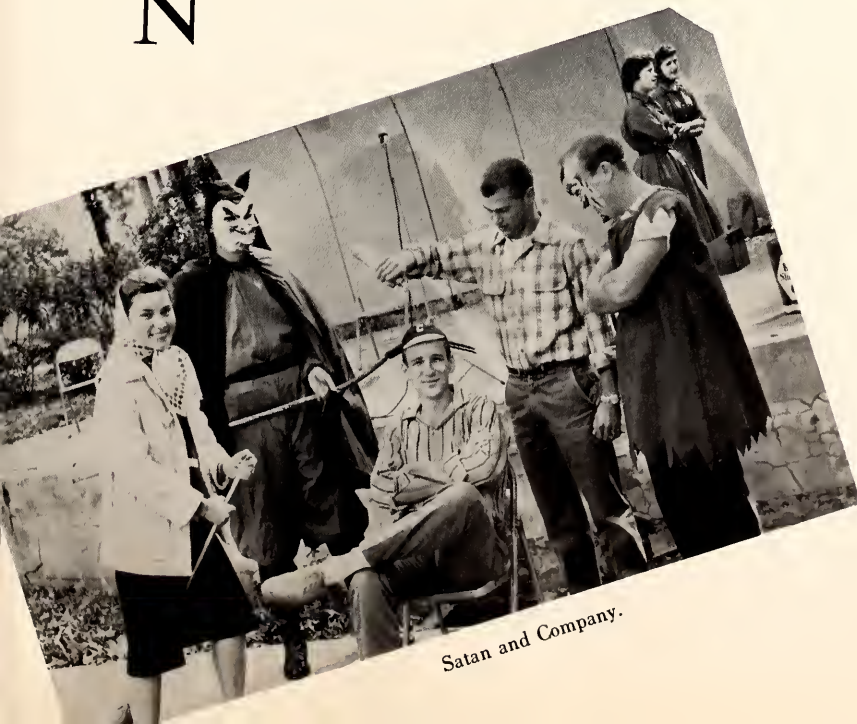

Lyndra—is this the secret to your beauty???

F R E S H M A N

The path of higher education is often rough . . . and Muddy.

H A Z I N G

Satan and Company.

How are you fixed for blades?

Ralph, do you spend your spare time as a waiter.

It does us good to let our hair down once in a while. Right, Jeri?

Like, we ain't cool.

Hey, come join us.

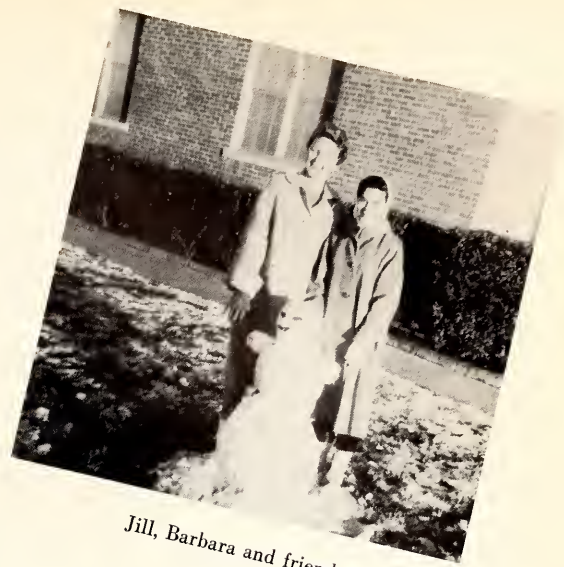

You can look now, Cathie.

Slow down there, Lon.

Family portrait

Jill, Barbara and friend.

Valentines

Boo!

Did we really win?

Nature boys.

Don't get up on our account, Penny.

How/???????

Having trouble, Sammy Kaye?

Watching all the boys go by.

Santa's little helper.

Dare me?

Go, girls, go!!!

We, the members of the 1960 Yoncopin Staff, have selected as the theme for this book, "Rhapsody In Blue." The color blue symbolizes the blue skies and horizons that lie before us in this new decade. The design featured throughout the book was chosen to symbolize the freshness, the freedom, and the challenge for perfection of the '60s. May our lives become a "Rhapsody in Blue" dedicated to the ideals expressed in this writing:

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high;

Where knowledge is free;

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls;

Where words come out from the death of truth;

Where tireless striving stretches its arms toward perfection;

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit;

Where the mind is led forward by thee into ever widening thought and action—

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake.

TAGORE RABINDRANATH, "GITANJALI" (1912)
